Overview: This is a 125 square meter (constructed) apartment, located in a residential area in the town of Estepona, however in the western outskirts and very close to the village of Casares. Estepona is one of the high-quality tourist destinations on the Costa del Sol. The beautiful little town with wide beaches awarded the Blue Flags for its excellence. There are many restaurants in the center of the city and nice "chiringutios" along the beaches. Its multinational population, its multi faceted culture and its proximity to Marbella, Gibraltar and the province of Cadiz, make Estepona a nice place to live. The complex where this apartment is located has private access with parking areas, a swimming pool with sea views. This is a ground floor apartment has a comfortable open terrace of 53 square meters, directly connected with the garden and its well manicured lawn. Without any barrier, terrace is directly linked to the beach, however, without losing privacy, giving the owner the privilege to enjoy the green grass and the blue sea from your terrace. This apartment consists of two bedrooms with fitted wardrobes, two bathrooms, a guest toilet and open kitchen – a dining room. Both bedrooms and the living room have access to this beautiful terrace. Floors in a creamy color, white doors and large windows increases the amplitude and offer a good light inside the house. It is an ideal place to spend holidays and enjoy the splendid beaches on the Malaga coast. With sea views also from the swimming it makes this cozy apartment a place where everything is at your fingertips. The apartment is sold furnished. It is definitely a highly desirable property as a vacation home or rental apartment.
